

Nurture and Nature Well-Being Retreat Package at 137 Pillars House Chiang Mai

Immersing yourself in nature is one of the best ways to rejuvenate the mind, body and soul and re-energize the spirit. 137 Pillars House Chiang Mai, a leading luxury all-suite boutique resort in northern Thailand, has launched a new “Nurture and Nature Well-Being Retreat” Package. The 4-day and 3-night wellness retreat includes a soothing selection of wellness therapies and nature-immersive activities for guests to restore and enhance their well-being.

137 Pillars House Chiang Mai’s tranquil location and lush tropical landscape combined with the spectacular sites of Chiang Mai create the perfect backdrop for this reinvigorating getaway, with stunning vistas, lush jungles and refreshing waterfalls. Guests will be immersed in a peaceful sanctuary for the senses.

Included in the package are 3 healthy dinners at the hotel using the freshest seasonal, locally sourced ingredients, as well as daily onsite wellness activities. In addition to the daily activities, the following are included:

- Luxurious suite accommodation in the category of your choice
- Round trip private airport limousine transfers
- Personal butler service
- 20% discount on any additional food and beverage not included in the package
- 20% discount on any additional spa treatments not included in the package

Complemented by the setting of 137 Pillars House Chiang Mai’s stunning greenery and unrivalled service, the “Nurture and Nature Well-Being Retreat” Package combines an holistic wellness retreat with a relaxing holiday, fully immersed in the rejuvenating presence of nature.

The “Nurture and Nature Well-Being Retreat” Package is available through direct booking with 137 Pillars House. Rates start from THB 66,000 (approx. USD1,921) for single occupancy and THB 85,500 (approx. USD2,488) for double occupancy in a Rajah Brooke Suite. Rates are subject to applicable service charge and government taxes and are valid until 30 April 2023.
